

81

83

AMUSEMENT MACHINES AND JUKE BOXES

84  A Good and Early Fortuna Automatic Bagatelle Wall Gaming Machine, 1890's, slender oak case with glazed front, green baized covered flash with four cups one labeled 'riga', the others 'return', ball put in play with plunger on right side falls around pins and cups, instruction panel below in original decoratively cut frame, coin slot to side, small shell-shaped token dispenser and ball release to side, lacking one side and back, 89.5cm; 35 1/2 in high.

380

£250-350

85  'The 'Wizard' Wall Mounted Skill Game, wooden flash with chrome channels and eight pinned scoring rounds, playing flat coloured discs, trigger and coin trap to front, skill button and coin slot to side of stained oak case, back replaced, 70cm; 27 1/2 in high.

280

£200-300

86  A Bryan's 'Live Peep Show' Amusement Device, oak case with one penny slot, reproduction explanatory flash in brass frame urges player to deposit coin for a glimpse of ant's nest inside with the inhabitants at work and play, brass peep hole to front of dark stained oak case, ants not included, 51cm; 20 in high.

210

£200-300

87  A Rare Automatic Soda Syphon, circa 1900, of stained oak and brass construction, sides with bevelled mirror panels lettered in red North & Co., Oxford, with brass handle and coin slot to top, fitted with blue glass bottle of North's High Class Soda Water, coin drawer, very good condition, 53cm; 21 in high.

400

£300-500

88 A Mills Extraordinary Amusement Machine, early 1930's, no. 342146, finished in deep blue and chrome, with black lining, case with three numbered reels, win table, instructions, horizontal coin escalator, jackpot and play handle, good restored condition, 70cm; 27 1/2 in high.

360

£200-300

89 A Columbia Counter Top Three Reel Gaming Machine, late 1930's, by the Groetchen Tool Co., fruit reels, raised 6d. coin slot, double jackpot, side play handle, win table, the case finished metallic blue, on oak base board, 49cm; 19 1/2 in high.

240

£250-350

90  A 'Secrets of Egypt' Working Model, the floor-standing wooden case with glazed front, enclosing a scene of the inside of an ancient egyptian tomb with seated figure to foreground and sarcophagus behind, case topped with painted cast metal clown's face, with 3d. coin slot, the case painted cream with red detailing and lettered name, fair condition, approx., 185cm; 73 in high.

550

£500-800

91 A Mills 'Vest Pocket' Three Reel Counter Machine, late 1930's, the diminutive machine with fruit reels visible to top, sliding coin play, covered pay hatch, finished in metallic blue, lacking hinged payout card, 20cm; 8 in high.

140

£120-180

84

85

92 A Mills Hi-Top Three Reel Fruit Machine, late 1940's, metallic blue and chrome case with 6d. slot, handle to side, win table, 67cm; 96cm high.

240

£150-250

93 A 'Which Can You Light Today' Wall Mounted Electrical Quiz Wall Machine, designed by Eric Thompson, The Electric Shop, Thirsk, the mirrored flash lettered in red and white with title, beside fifteen character descriptions with small electric lamp, two handles below purportedly deliver small shock to subject, in stained oak case, 54cm; 21 1/2 in high.

130

£100-150

94 A Mills Crown Front Three Reel Gaming Machine, with gooseneck 50 cent coin slot, three skill buttons above, with raised award table, jackpot below, handle to side, decoratively cast front re-painted gold with green, red, yellow and blue detailing, 66cm; 26in high.

£250-350

94A A British American Novelty Company Pussy Shooter Skill Game, English, circa 1935, the red 'brick' painted wooden case with glazed upper section enclosing line of five cats on a wall with painted background, gun to front fires ball bearings at cats to topple them, sprung trigger and coin slot to front, raised on four cast m legs, good restored condition, 195cm; 77in high.

440

£500-700

95 A Bryan's Clock Gambling Machine, 1940's, oak case with top 1p. coin slot, clock face, adjustable odds, winding handle to front adjusts hands, instruction sheet, good condition, 66cm; 26in high.

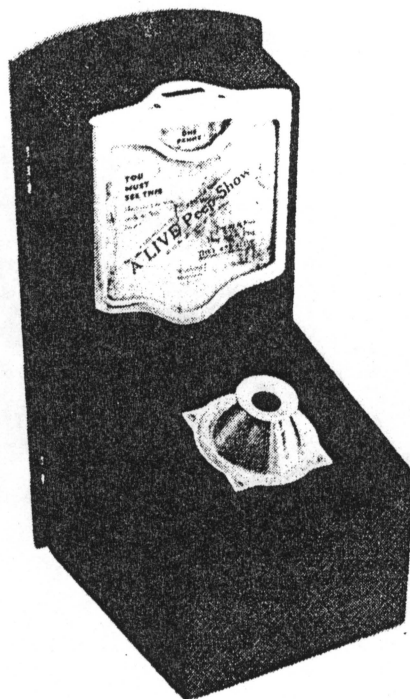

150

£150-200

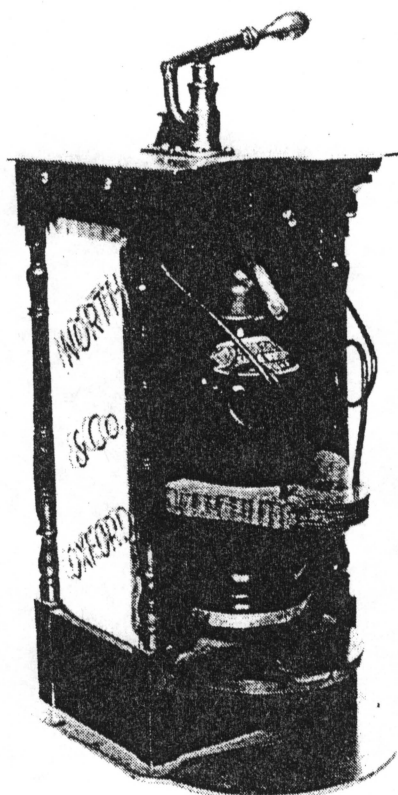

96 A Brecknell Dolman & Rogers Gaming Machine, 1950's, in stainless steel case, with three horizontal fruit reels, two reward tables, 'super' jackpot, 6d. coin slot, playing handle to side, 49cm; 19 1/2 in high, on tubular metal stand.

160

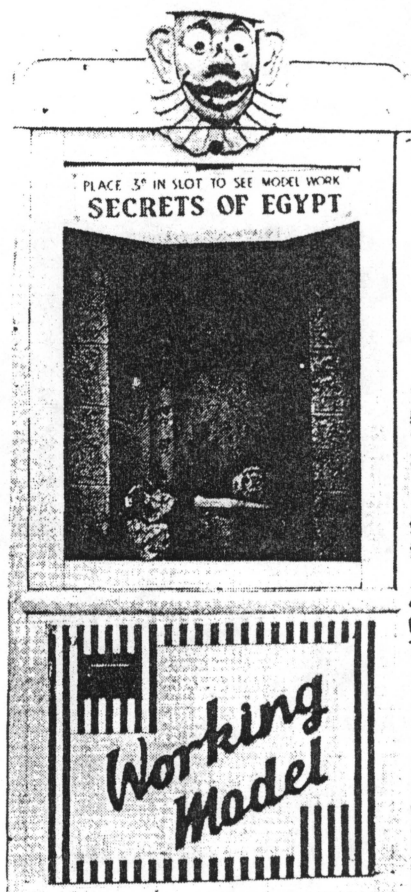

£180-250

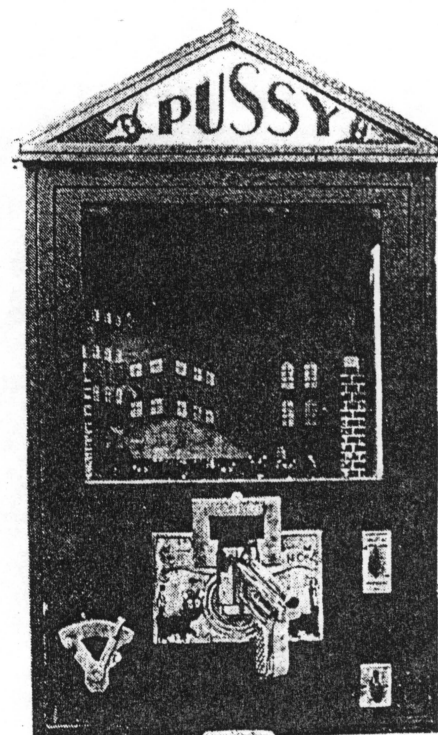

86

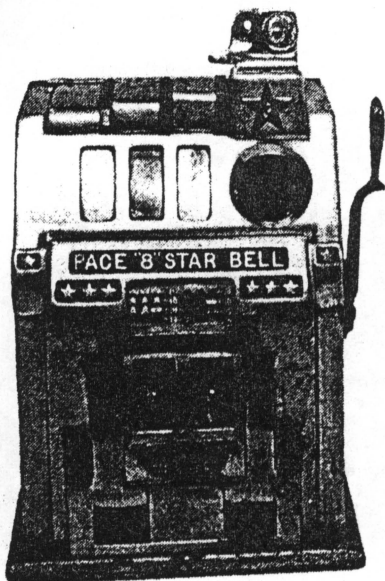

87

90

94A

99

97 A Mills 'Deluxe' Fruit Machine, with three recessed reels, new penny coin slot, reward case, instructions, payout, handle to side, metallic blue metal front with chromed detailing, fair condition, 70.5cm; 27 1/4 in high.

150

£150-200

98 A 'Chad' Allwin Wall Mounted Gaming Machine, the plastic flash depicting the cartoon character Chad, and lettered 'Wot, all winners?', with seven win chutes within concentric circles, with sprung trigger, ball release handle, coin cup, and penny coin slot, in oak case, 68cm; 27 in high.

193

£100-150

99 A Pace '8' Star Bell Three Reel Fruit Machine, circa 1948, with raised 6d. coin slot, circular coin escalator, award table, double jackpots, cast metal front with red detailing, play handle to side, on wooden baseboard, 61.5cm; 24 1/4 in high.

270

£300-400

100 A Mills Mystery Bell Castle Front Three Reel Fruit Machine, early 1930's, with arched 1 cent coin slot, horizontal coin escalator, jackpot, two payout cups, play handle to side, award table, finished in blue front cast with coat of arms and castle, good restored condition, on oak baseboard, 86cm; 34 in high.

2600
620

£400-600

101 A Bryan's Bullion Gambling Machine, 1960's, five coin slots correspond to numbers indicated by pointer on pentagonal play board, handle to front, new penny coin slot, named in chromed letters above, in wooden case stripped of paint, 83cm; 32 1/4 in high.

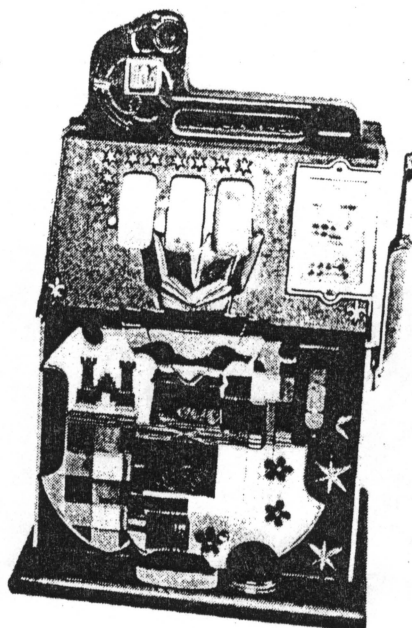

120

£100-150

102 A Bryan's Bullion Amusement Machine, 1960's, for 1d. play, with five numbered coin slots, numbers correspond to possible winning numbers on play board below, pointer to board activated by turning play handle below, wooden cases finished in red spattered black and white, oak front with individual chrome fittings, with keys, good working order, lacking cast title above, 79cm; 31 1/4 in high.

60

£60-100

100

103 Another Similar, with keys.

90

£60-100

104 Another Similar, with keys.

95

£60-100

105 A Mills Hi Top Fruit Machine, with red painted reproduction case, metal with chromed trim, three reels, 1p. coin slot, handle to side, jackpot, good restored condition, on oak baseboard, 64cm; 25 in high.

220

£200-300

106 A Mills Spinning Reels Three Gaming Machine, with award table, 1d. coin slot, handle to side, payout below, metal front finished in metallic green and chrome with red lining, title flash above, formica body and baseboard, 69cm; 27 in high.

420

£200-300

107 A Bryan's Bullion Gaming Machine, wooden case finished in yellow spattered paint, oak front with cast metal fittings, five numbered penny play slots above, pointer indicates winning numbers on red and yellow numbered polygonal play board to centre, play handle to front, cast metal name above, fair condition, 84cm; 33 in high.

£60-80

108 A Harvard Standard Co. Metal-Typer Arcade Machine, circular face to front with pointer indicates desired letter, pull stamping handle to left side, handle on right releases stamped tape, in floorstanding wood and metal case with half circle metal title above, approx. 152cm; 60 in high; together with another similar; and a Walden Goliath Crane, painted red and yellow, replaced motor, very poor condition, approx. 175cm; 69 in high.

100

£60-100

109 A Clement & Whales 'Little Wonder' Greyhound Machine, oak case with cast metal title surround above giving winnings corresponding to colours indicated by pointer to upper portion of circular glazed flash, flash lithographed with view of greyhound stadium and lower cut-out square displaying 'tote dividend', turning handle and win cup below, fair condition, 66.5cm; 26 1/4 in high.

180

£150-200

110 A Bryan's Fruit Bowl Gaming Machine, 1960's, oak case with raised title and 1d. coin slot above, centre with spinning disc lithographed with leaves, berries and fruits variously scored, turning handle to front, pays out when numbered fruits stop at pointer, some losses to revolving disc, 82cm; 32 1/4 in high.

75

£60-100

111 A Bryan's All Sport Amusement Machine, 1960's, the flash decorated with scenes of nine sports, with 1d. coin slot, each of two players manipulating bumpers for goal at each end with turning handle, in spatter finish wooden case, fair condition, 54.7cm; 21 1/4 in high.

100

£50-80

112 A Pinball Table Machine, by GHS Automatics, Thirsk, with 'What's Your Line?' illuminated title board with play/tilt indicator, sprung ball release and eleven scoring bumpers and corresponding numbers on title board which light up when hit, wooden case, push coin slot to front, poor condition, lacking legs, 66cm; 26 in high.

35

£40-60

113 A Mills Bell O Matic Four Reel Gaming Machine, chrome finished case with red detailing, 6d. coin slot, award table, escalator, payout below, side play handle, 71cm; 28 in high.

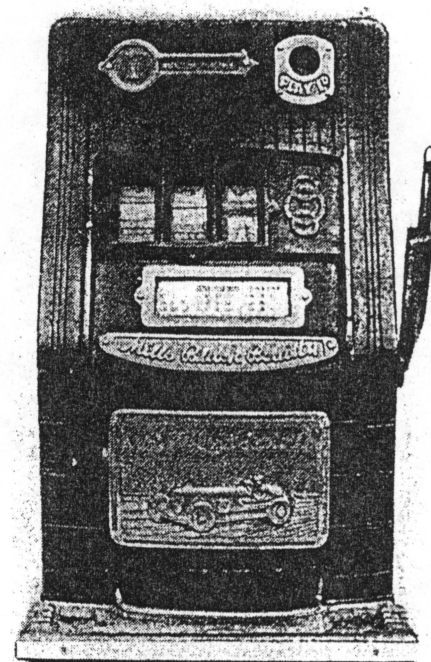

290

£300-400

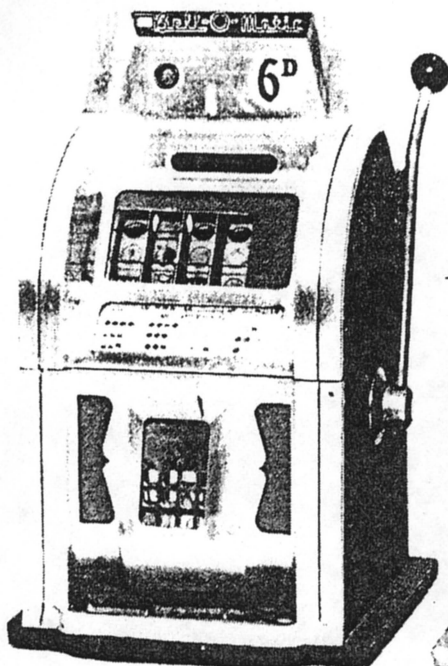

114 A Mills Diamond Front Fruit Machine, late 1930's, the front cast with chrome diamond shapes repainted green with red detailing, with jackpot table to front over payout, raised 6d. coin slot, escalator, side play handle, on oak baseboard, 64cm; 25 1/4 in high.

300

£300-400

121

113

115  A Jennings Victoria Gaming Machine, Model B, No. 106204, with three numbered reels, raised 6d. coin slot, raised and framed win table above, three skill buttons, jackpot, handle to side, decoratively cast metal case painted blue, 61cm; 24in high.

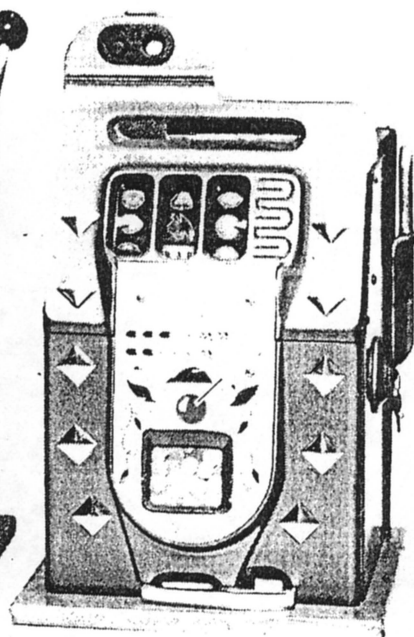

380

£300-400

116 A Mills Extraordinary Three Reel Gaming Machine, 1930's, in deco style blue painted metal case, with 1d. coin slot, bellhop panel, escalator, handle to side, paintwork poor, in need of restoration, lacking jackpot, 72cm; 28 1/2 in high.

200

£200-300

114

117 A 'Pace's Races' Horse Racing Amusement Machine, 1940's, floorstanding oak case with glazed top, seven numbered coin slots correspond to horses running, inside with rotating odds table, spectator stands, mirrored action, and seven horses and lanes, case lacking back panel, in need of restoration, bellows perished, 88cm; 34 1/2 in high.

600

£300-500

118 A Bryan's Bullion Gaming Machine, wooden case finished in speckled red, with oak front and cast metal fittings, five numbered penny play slots correspond to numbers on five-sided play board below indicated by pointer, handle to front, cast metal name above, fair condition, 84cm; 33in high.

80

£60-80

119 A Win Cigarette Wall Machine, late 1940's, the large oak case with penny slot, player attempts to shoot coin into one of three compartments to face, winners collect cigarettes from one of three drawers below corresponding window, with chromed trim, 88cm; 34 1/2 in high.

40 110

£50-80

120 A Stereo Viewer 'Latest 3D Art Studies for Men Only', the plain wooden case with metal box title flash to top, lettered and holding cut-out chipboard posing scantily clad female, stereo peeps with focus lever and coin slot to front, 176.5cm; 69 1/2 in high.

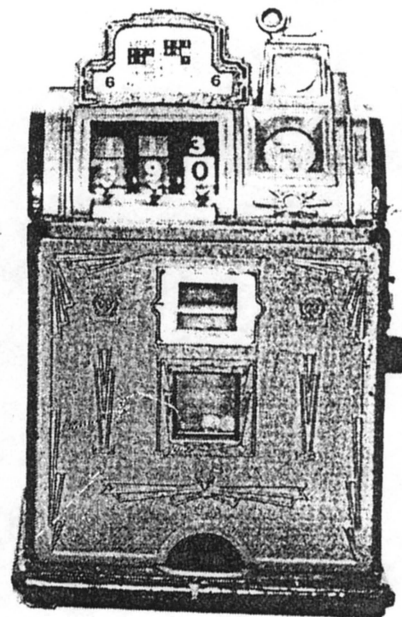

100

£150-250

121  A Mills Black Beauty Three Reel Fruit Machine, with purple painted metal front with 1d. coin slot, win table, payout below, with cast plaque below depicting a racing car reading 'The Very Fastest', side play handle, on formica baseboard, good condition, 62cm; 24 1/2 in high.

260

£300-400

115

122 A Wondermatics 'Steeple Chase' Wall Amusement Machine, large oak case with colourful plastic flash with racetrack scene, with eighteen win/lose chutes and in three ranks within concentric chromed bands, with sprung trigger, play handle payout cup, 1d. coin slot, good condition, 89cm; 35in high.

160

£100-150

123 A Mills Extraordinary Three Reel Gaming Machine, 1930's, no. 351107, with 3d. coin slot, three numbered reels, win table beside, instructions, escalators, jackpot, play handle to side, the deco style case finished in pale grey with blue and red detailing, three skill buttons, 70cm; 27 1/2 in high.

220

£250-350

124 A Bryan's Payramid Bench Top Skill Machine, 1940's, oak case with cast metal detailing painted red, with 1d. coin slot, title plate, play handle, sprung trigger releases balls which player attempts to catch between two prongs on baize covered flash, payout cup below, good condition, 82cm; 32 1/2 in high.

310

£250-350

125 An Exacta Three Reel Gaming Machine, German, 1950's, plain wooden case with three numbered reels visible on central mirrored panel, with start button, win table, coin slot and return above, payout mouth below, play handle to side, poor condition, 74cm; 29in high.

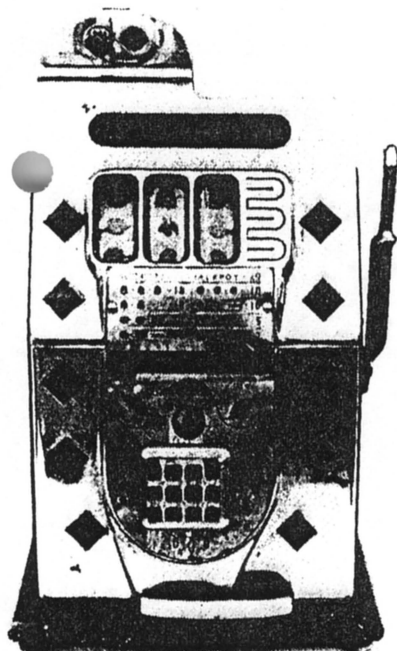

40

£50-80

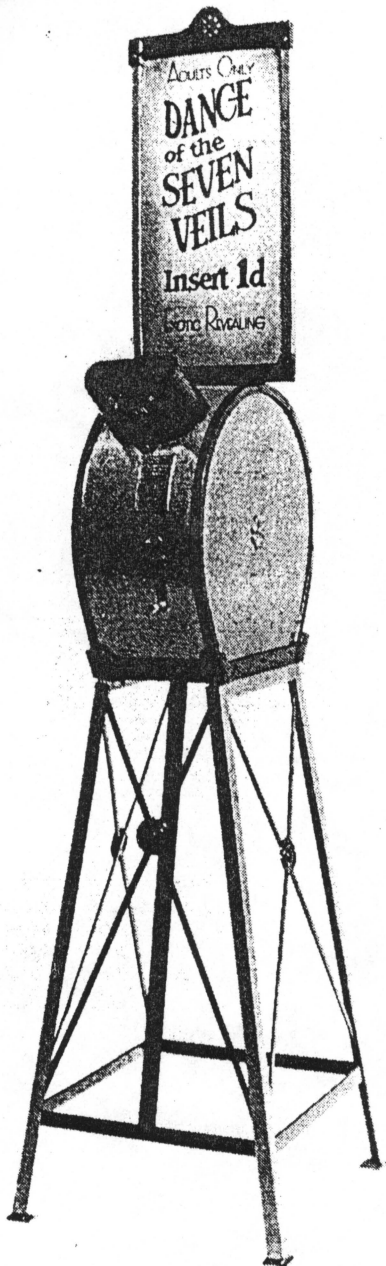

126  A Mills Chrome Bell Diamond Front Three Reel Gaming Machine, with raised 6d. coin slot, horizontal escalator, play handle to side, win table, jackpot, the chromed front cast with red diamonds, and cherry and leaves below win table, good condition, on baseboard, 65cm; 25 1/2 in high.

380

£300-400

126

133

127 A Pace 'Comet' Three Reel Fruit Machine, with raised 6d. coin slot, circular coin escalator, jackpots, win table, handle to side, the decoratively cast front finished in blue with yellow and red detailing, poor condition, escalator lacking glass, 61.5cm; 24 1/2 in high.

300

£200-300

128 A Mills Three Reel Fruit Machine, the reproduction metal case finished in red, with 3d. coin slot, win table, handle to side, payout below, on wooden baseboard, 68cm; 26 1/2 in high.

130

£150-250

129 'The Challenger' Wall Gaming Machine, playing pennies down pinned flash into fifteen coin columns below, cast title panel above with penny slot and sprung trigger, coin cup below, 93.5cm; 36 1/4 in high.

95

£70-100

130 'The Sport Practically Wall Billiards' Gaming Machine, by Holloway Automatic Machines, oak case with green baize covered flash, flash with brass pins, channels and four ball catching numbered cups, instructions to face, 1d. coin slot, coin return slot, turning handle and spring trigger, good condition, 71cm; 28 in high.

180

£70-100

131 A 'Win and Place' Wall Amusement Machine, the flash depicting stadium seating and finish post with seven win/lost/2nd place/3rd place chutes, and instructions, 1p. coin slot to side, sprung trigger, play handle and coin cup below, in oak case, 77.5cm; 30 1/2 in high.

160

£80-100

132 A 'Screen Snapshots' Gaming Machine, recast metal front painted blue with chrome and red detailing and cast figure of Oscar below, 1d. coin slot, cast title to top, single wide reel bearing names of star, pay table ranking and corresponding points for different stars, with skill buttons, side handle, 70cm; 27 1/2 in high.

160

£100-150

133 A 'Dance of the Seven Veils' Naughty Mutoscope, by the International Mutoscope Co., in metallic blue painted metal drum body, stereo peep to front above turning handle, title above in framed display, 1d. coin slot, on matching stand, 186cm; 73 1/2 in high.

950

£600-800

134 A Beromat Wall Gaming Machine, German, 1960's, with three numbered reels, metal case with simulated wood front, cast elements painted red, green, and gold comprising coin slot, award table, coin cup, play handle to side, 72cm; 28 1/2 in high.

80

£60-80

135 A Bryan's Pilwin Wall Gaming Machine, wooden case painted metallic blue, glazed front with colourful plastic flash decorated with clown whose mouth serves as win chute, play handle, coin cup and sprung trigger below, some damage to flash, 80cm; 31 1/2 in high.

80

£50-80

136 An 'Action Line' Three Reel Gaming Machine, 1970's, by Bell Fruit Manufacturing, mirrored flash with metal surround, transfer printed with vivid image of fighter aircraft, win table, play handle at side, 1p. coin slot above, payout, floor-standing formica case, approx. 150cm; 59 in high; together with a 'Florida' three reel fruit machine, lithographed mirror flash with win table, 1d. coin slot with reject button, formica case, 73.5cm; 29 in high.

30

(2)
£40-60

137 A Fortune Telling Machine, plain stained oak case, large arched flash to front, mirror lithographed with a scene of a woman in Edwardian dress consulting a gypsy card reader, gypsy caravan to background, six small pull drawers below dispense fortune cards, one drawer lacking, back of machine lacking, 82cm; 32 1/2 in high; together with mechanism and front of 'What's my Line' Allwin-type wall machine, plastic flash with beach scene, twelve win columns paying out when filled, within concentric chromed circles, sprung trigger below, turning handle and coin cup, coin slot above, 76cm; 30 in high.

150

(2)
£60-100

138 A Mills Hi-Top Fruit Machine, three reels, with horizontal escalator, win table, 6d. coin slot, handle to side, the case re-painted red with chrome fittings, 66cm; 26 in high.

230

£200-250

139 A Bryan's 'Tick Tock' Amusement Machine, 1960's, the wooden bell-shaped case with glazed front housing three colour-coded pendula, 6d. coin slot, win table, playing key and payout cup below, the case finished in red, 77cm; 30 1/2 in high.

160

£150-250

140 A 'What the Butler Saw' Mutoscope, in metallic blue re-painted octagonal cast drum body, stereo viewer to front, 6d. coin slot, winding handle, title board above with replaced sign promising 'intrigue and excitement ... Adults only', side door replaced, 109cm; 43 in high overall.

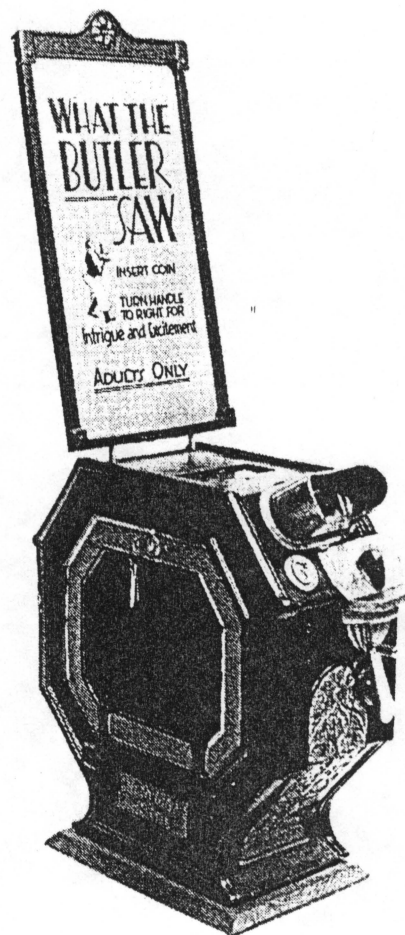

350

£300-500

141 A Stockbroker Gaming Machine, circular metal case with single horizontally spinning reel, instructions explain that player can buy stock in sterling, textiles, shipping, rubber or coal by stopping reel and depressing select lever, with penny slot, 'dividend' pay cup below, case finished in metallic sea green, sunburst cast details to face painted red, re-painted, 66cm; 26 in high.

95

£100-150

140